

Security policy

At xpd global, we are committed to implementing security practices to minimize contamination risks, primarily related to goods within the business and commercial supply chain, through:

- Policies and procedures based on CTPAT and Authorized Economic Operator standards.
- Mutual Recognition Program.
- Training and awareness initiatives for involved personnel.